

JESS Δ MOSKALUKE

Internationally celebrated artist Jess Moskaluke continues to break barriers in country music with her powerful voice, pop-infused hooks, and sonic versatility, as showcased on her latest EP, Heartbreaker, which features her first Australian #1 single, 'Go Get Er'. The first Canadian female country artist since Shania Twain to achieve Canadian Platinum single status with the hit 'Cheap Wine and Cigarettes', Moskaluke recently celebrated the 10th anniversary of its release with newly reimagined mixes of the fan favourite track. She has since gone on to earn Canadian Gold certifications for 'Take Me Home', 'Kiss Me Quiet', 'Knock Off' and her first NUMBER ONE 'Country Girls' and was notably the first Canadian female country artist since 2008 to have a song in the Top 3 with 'Drive Me Away'. The 2017 JUNO Award winner for 'Country Album of the Year', Moskaluke has taken home multiple CCMA Awards including 'Album Of The Year' (2018) and 'Female Artist of the Year' (3X consecutive) and is a 2017 SOCAN Award winner and the 2020 WCM Award winner for 'Country Artist of the Year', and a 2024 Women In Music Canada Honours nominee for Artist of the Year. Her 2021 album The Demos included an ode to her hometown with the hit single 'Mapdot', and in 2022 Moskaluke embarked on the Mapdot Tour, her first national headlining run which saw multiple sold out dates across Canada. Continuing to build her international reputation with notable plays at the C2C Music Festival in both Australia and the United Kingdom and with deep roots in the US, Moskaluke's creativity knows no borders. In addition to her music, Moskaluke is passionate about giving back to causes that are close to her including the MS Society of Canada and Telemiracle Saskatchewan. She continues to explore different facets of her career with resourcefulness and an entrepreneurial spirit, collaborating with local businesses and embracing new opportunities that showcase her versatility and creativity.
